

The Advanced Grain Pricing (AGP) program is offered in collaboration with FarmCo. This strategy can work in conjunction with my option-based C.R.O.P. Hedging program to help you further diversify and fine-tune your overall grain marketing plan. Please contact me for more details.

ADVANCED GRAIN PRICING PROGRAM

The Advanced Grain Pricing Program (AGP) developed by FARMCo uses traditional trading and risk management techniques to separate:

- 1) basis (delivery-timing) decisions, and
- 2) futures (price-timing) decisions.

Two different market forces - two different strategies. Acting on these markets separately and rationally is a very powerful & effective strategy.

The program captures returns by:

- tracking trends,
- using incremental pricing,
- earning carrying charges (storage),
- providing guidance on basis (delivery timing) decisions.
